The Department of Homeland Security, Customs and Border Protection administers the ESTA program, so we would direct you to CBP's website for more information about ESTA and prior State Sponsors of Terrorism travel. <https://esta.cbp.dhs.gov/>

If DHS denies ESTA for a traveler, they should apply for a B1/B2 visa. Likewise, applicants who have travelled to State Sponsors of Terrorism and would therefore not be eligible for ESTA should apply for a B1/B2 visa.

Please be aware that current wait times for B1/B2 processing are long: B1/B2 applicants are encouraged to apply at least six months prior to expected travel.
